DEDICATION

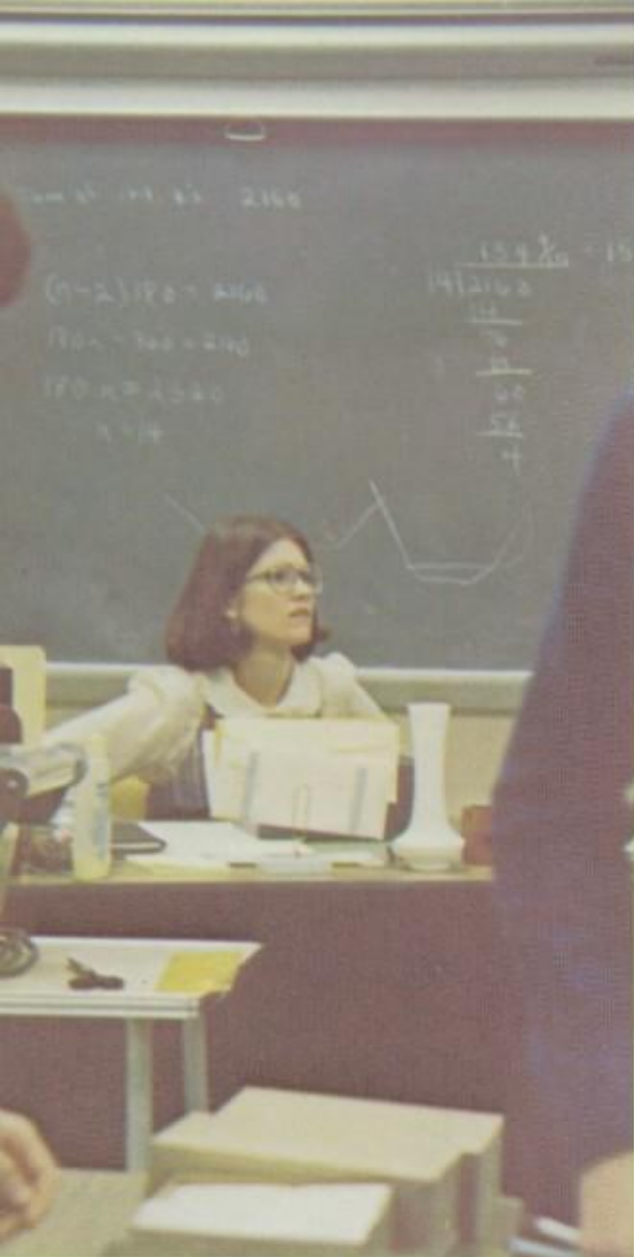

Quality Deserves Reward

Intelligence alone does not make a commendable teacher, but when multiplied by the ability to relate to students, the end product is most likely an outstanding teacher. A true teacher possesses qualities of patience and concern for her students in the everyday problems of student life. She listens when no one else listens and tries to understand even when the problem sounds absurd or overly simple. The answer she gives is always positive and has an infinite value, if not in the present, in the future. Her answer will apply to the individual because she recognizes the fact that each student is an individual with individual weaknesses. Even with the many problems faced daily, it is always "service with a smile."

The devoted teacher sees the importance of education not only for her students but also for herself. Hours on hours are spent before and after school, even at home, in preparation and individual instruction. She uses time wisely and organizes her work in order to perform efficiently.

Because we feel that you possess these qualities of leadership and guidance, and because of the tremendous time and effort that you have put into the yearbook, we thank you Miss Robertson.

Aug. 25 New Year and New Principal

The 1977-78 school year began with more confusion than any year in the history of the school — at least from the student's point of view. "Messy" schedules, a new principal, new rules, and extremely hot weather all added to the feeling of disorientation. No one was quite sure of how the major changes that had taken place during the summer would affect the student body.

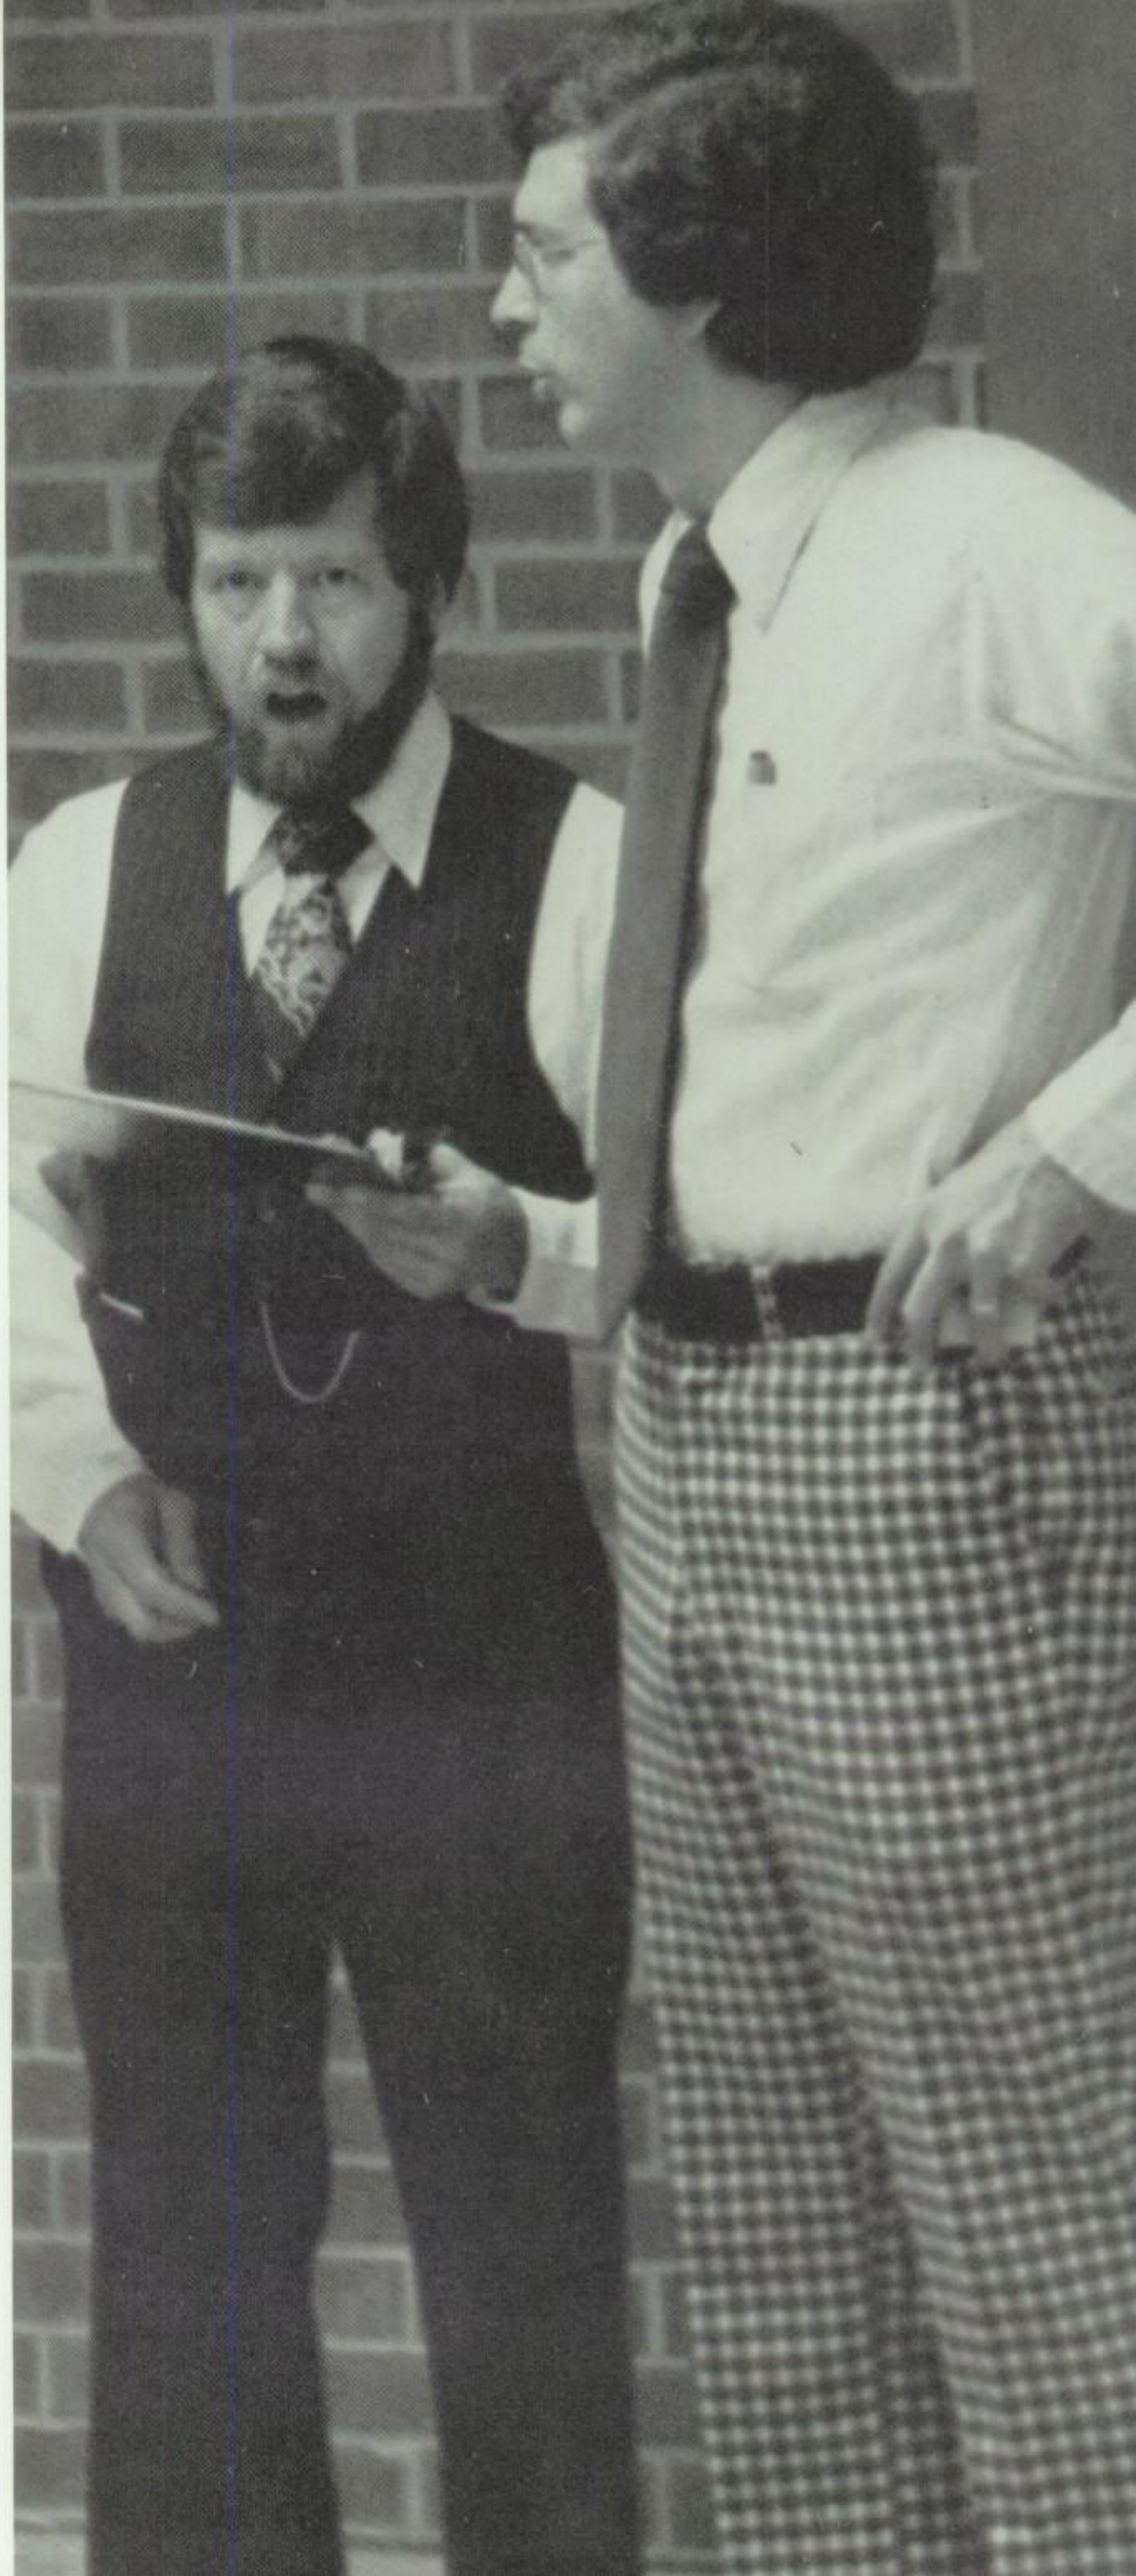

Excitement, laughter, and unusual quiet was the atmosphere at Ledford on the first day. The halls were filled with small talk of what everyone did during summer vacation. Old friends were reunited.

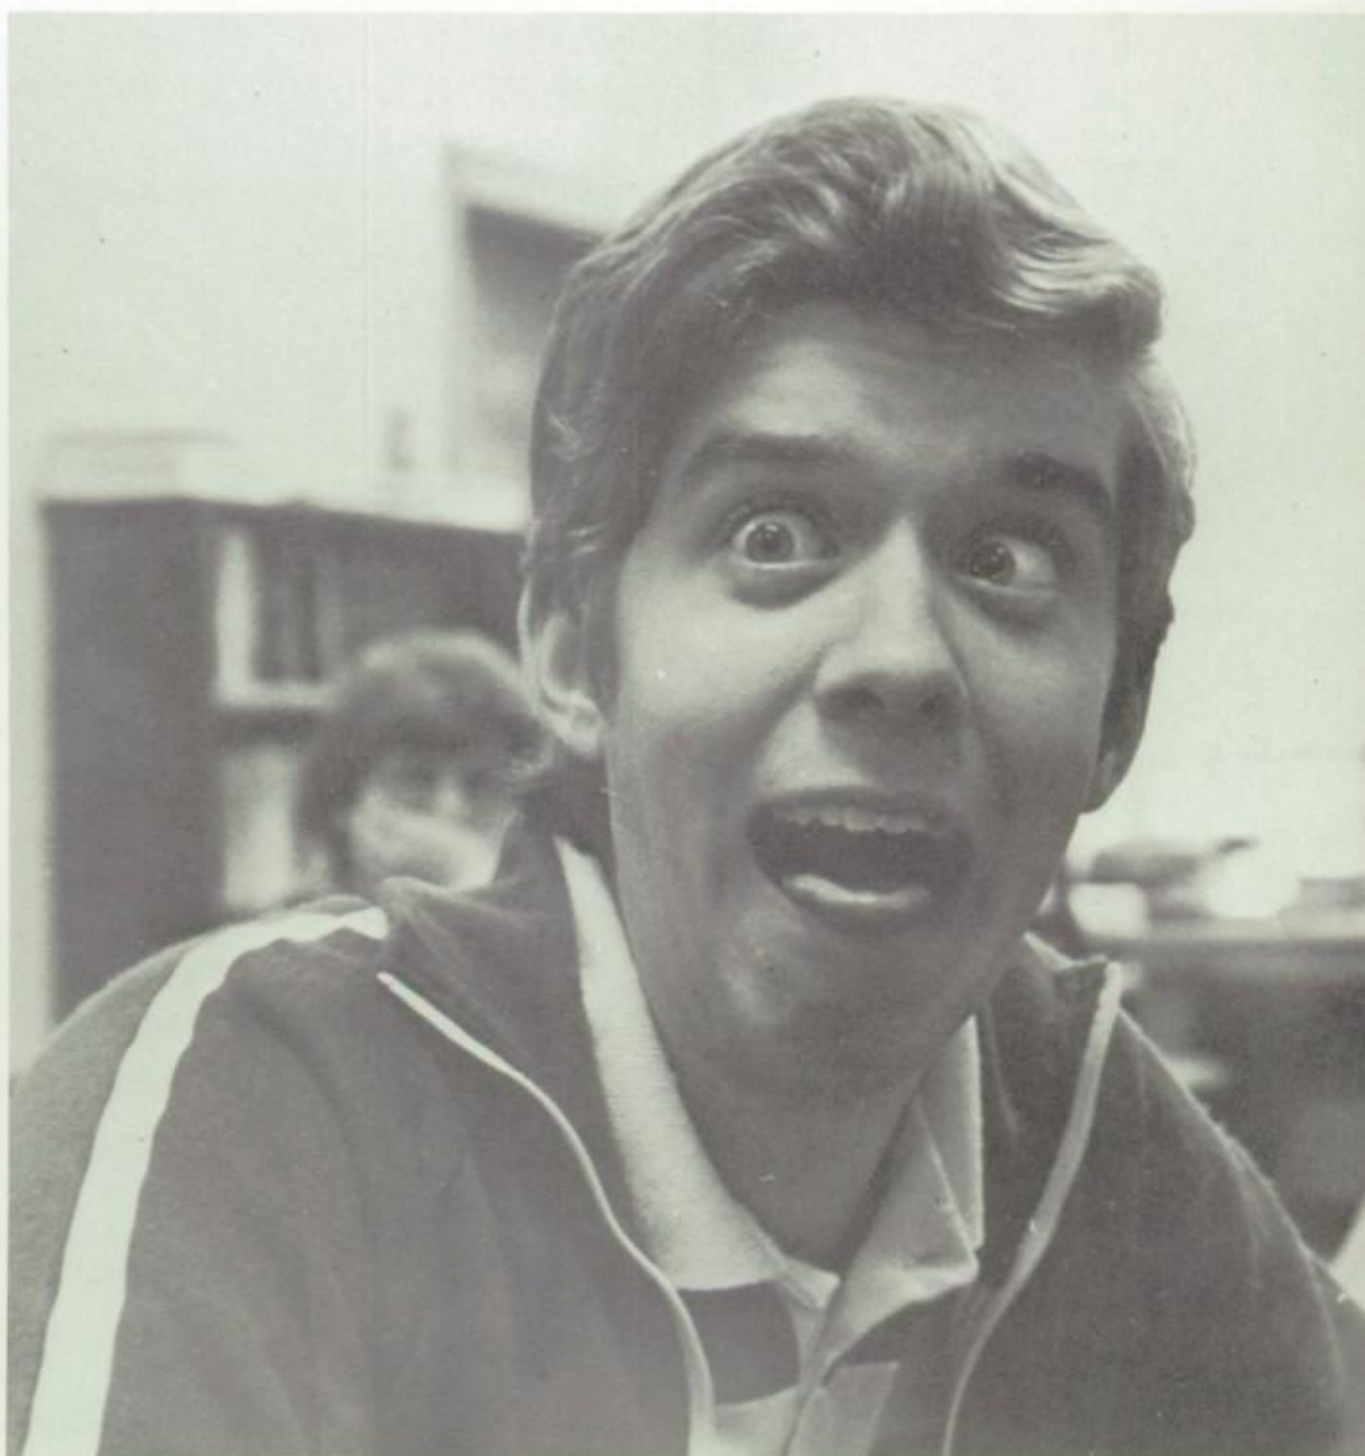

On Orientation day the students at Ledford met Mr. William Steed, the new principal, for the first time. Naturally with a new leader, things change: new rules, hall passes, two lunch periods instead of three, and new club schedules.

New county policies also gave students and faculty something to adjust to during the first few weeks. Due to extremely hot weather the county adopted a "Sahara schedule" which, dismissed school early.

The new early dismissal schedule, which allowed juniors and seniors to leave school early, also caused problems. Classes usually taken by juniors and seniors were scheduled only during the first periods of the day. For the first two weeks, students were seen in the offices rearranging schedules.

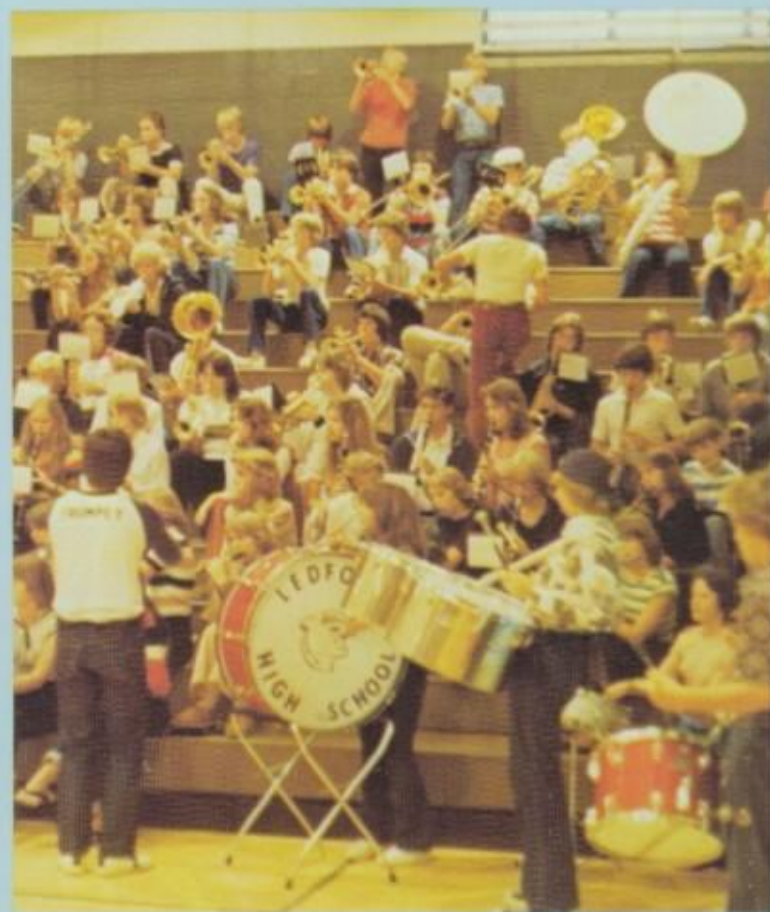

After a few weeks a more normal routine settled in for the year.

Bouldin Crowned Queen

For the first time in a few years, Ledford celebrated a rainy Homecoming. Despite the rain, the night was a success. The Panther football team played against Southwest Randolph at the Junior High field and won, 41-16. Then fans, parents, and students celebrated the victory with a dance in the Senior High gym. Music was provided by "Pendulum." The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Debbie Bouldin as Homecoming Queen. Debbie was escorted by Kevin Whiteheart.

Panthers Keep Up Tradition

Ledford High School has a tradition of being proud of their athletic teams. This year's varsity football team had a win-loss record that is not outstanding compared to the seasons preceeding this one, but the team came together in their last four games to even their record at 5-5. By the end of the season, they were a very strong and competitive team.

At least sixteen competitive sports are participated in by Ledford students, both male and female. Among the offerings are volleyball, wrestling, track, cross country, and golf as well as the traditional football and basketball.

Girls' sports have arrived here at Ledford. The Lady Panthers have added to the tradition of Ledford by having practically dominated their sports. In the last three years, they have captured the Conference championship in volleyball. They have also gone to the playoffs every year. The victories in volleyball have given them confidence in other sports.

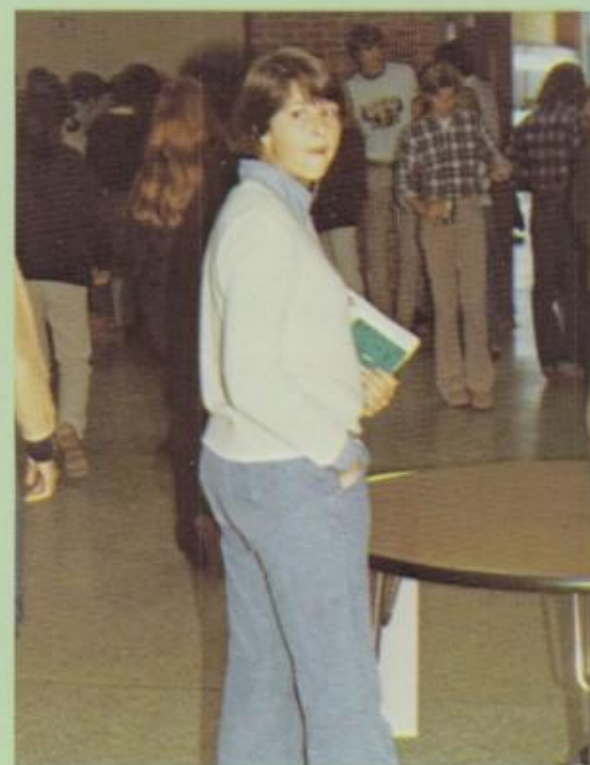

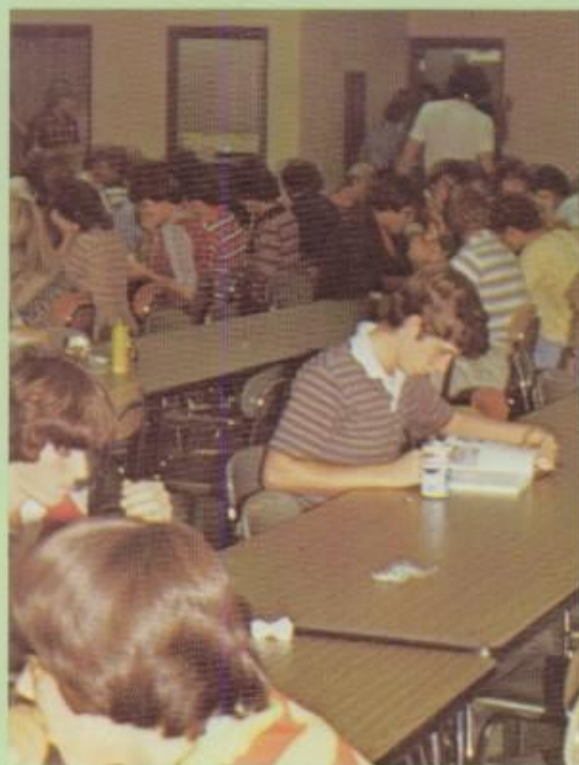

There is a group of athletes that are not always recognized as athletes in the narrow sense of the word. They are the cheerleaders. They not only cheer at the football and basketball games, but they also prepare the athletic banquets, decorate the gym and field with posters, and conduct pep rallies.

In the fall they held a cheerleader clinic co-sponsored by the Wake Forest University cheerleaders.

Free Time?

There are two main times during school when students are free of classroom supervision — break and lunch. These times give students a chance to socialize, have a Pepsi, smoke a cigarette, or just relax.

Most students congregate in the cafeteria or on the new benches in the hall. The drink and snack machines always have a long line. Since the parking lot is off-limits, most smokers can be found in the designated areas.

Extra Activities

Keep Ledford Students Busy

Ledford has an extensive club program with over thirty clubs to choose from. Within these clubs, there are many diverse interests ranging from farming to literature to health careers.

All of our clubs perform some service to benefit the school or community. The Literary Society publishes the literary magazine, TALIONIS, the Pep Club aids in keeping up school spirit, the Health Careers Club helps raise money for charity, and Stand-n-Gavel sponsors a debate tournament. Many other clubs aid in providing food and money to the needy and charitable organizations.

Our clubs also aid in developing the talents of their members to their very fullest, particularly those skills needed in later life. The Future Farmers of America competes in livestock judging and tool identification, skills of importance in farming. Beta Club helps its members develop the qualities of leadership and responsibility. The Future Secretaries of America, the Future Homemakers of America, and DECA also help their members develop skills to be used in later life.

Besides club and sports activities, Ledford students participate in a wide range of activities. Many students have the responsibility of part-time jobs, participate in Scouting and 4-H activities, and play an active part in community churches.

Administration

Mr. William P. Steed, principal

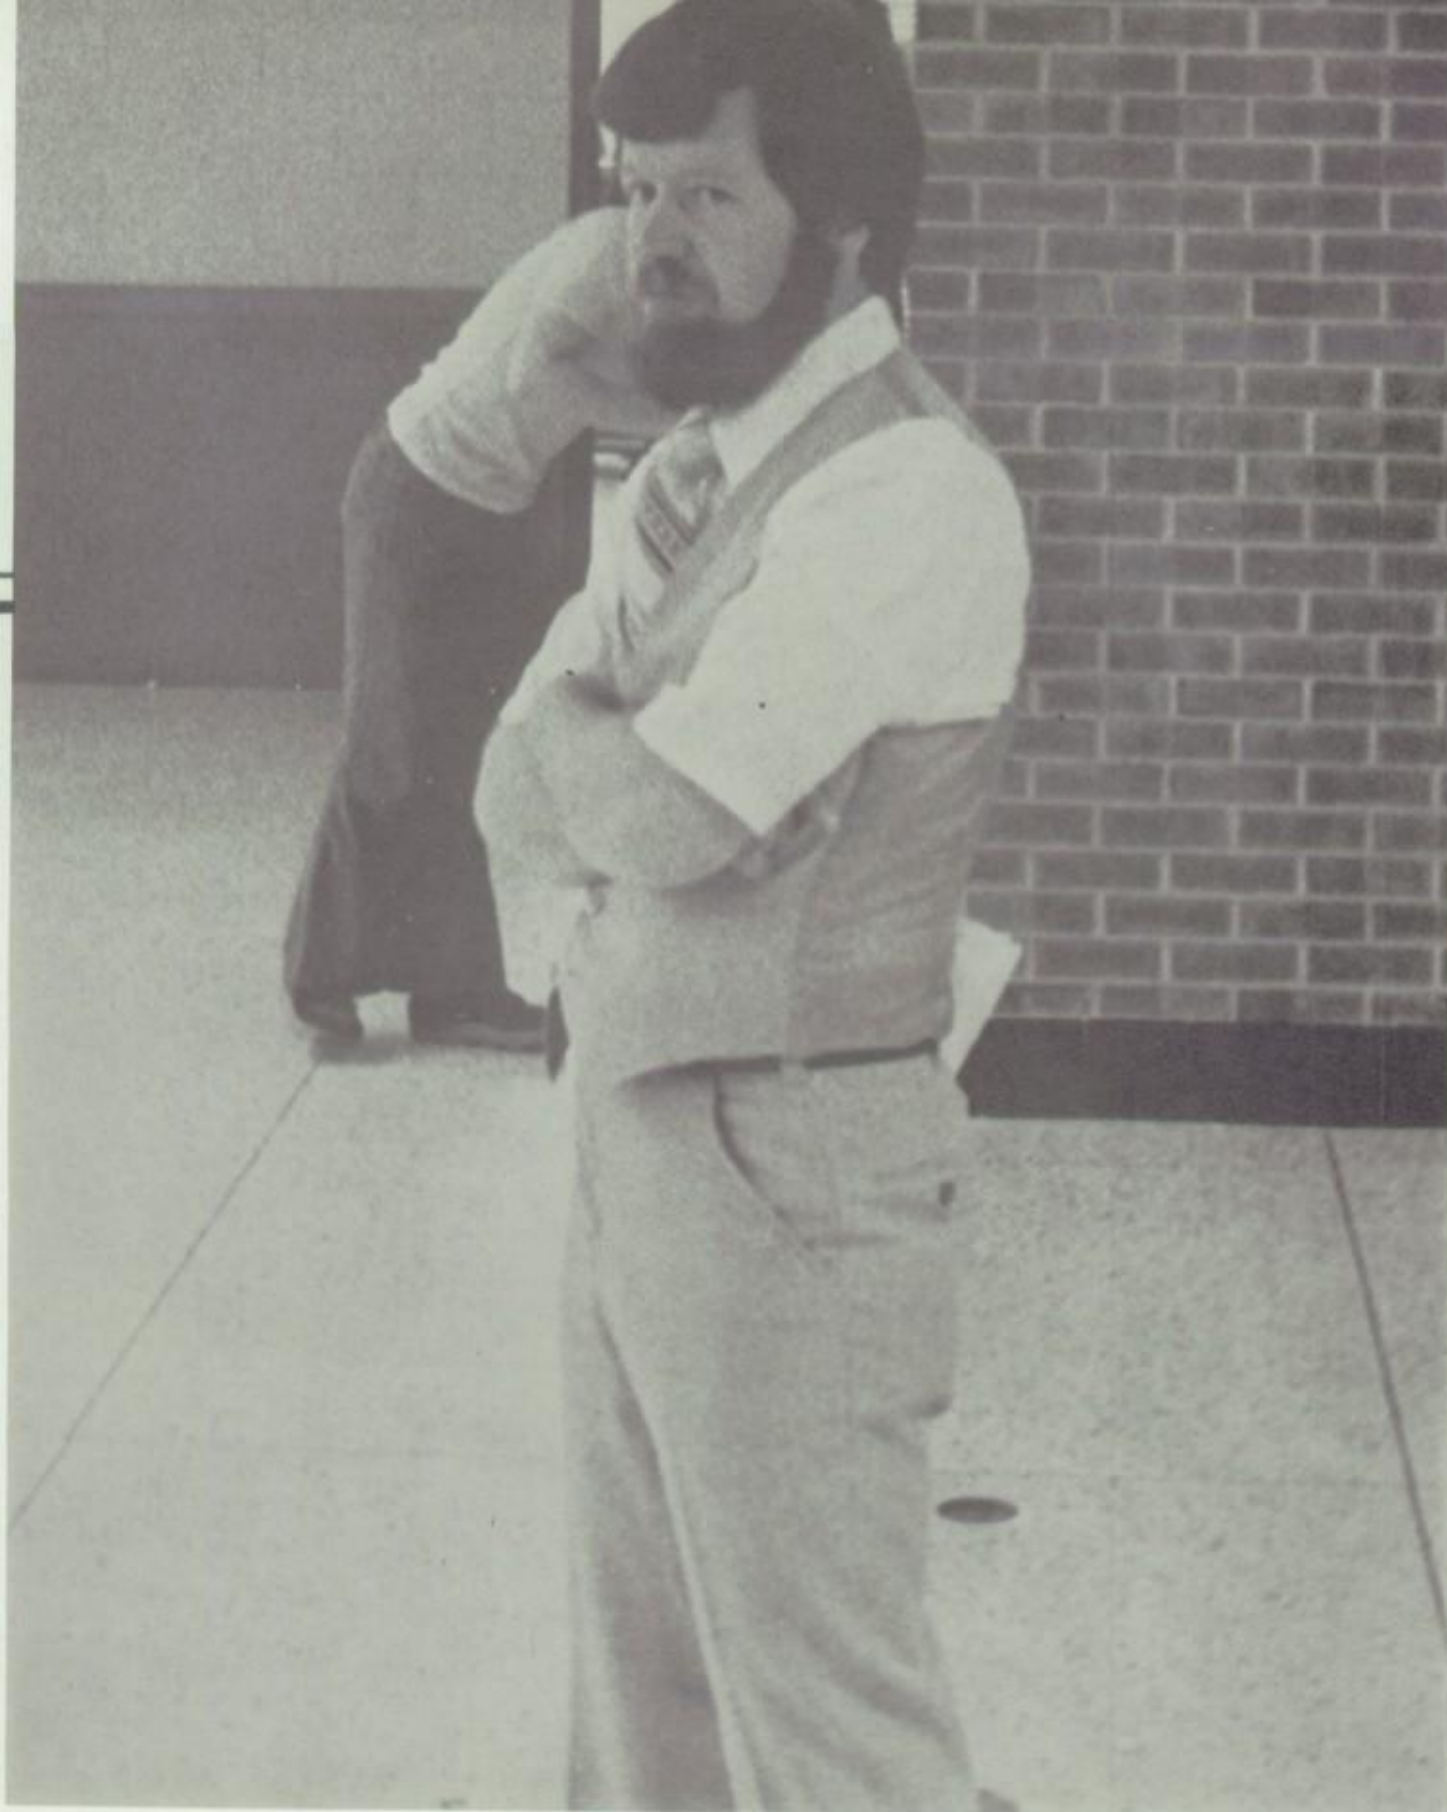

The Administration of Ledford has acquired a new face this year. This face is the one of our principal, Mr. W.P. Steed. Being his first year at Ledford, Mr. Steed has spent this year getting acquainted with the faculty and students. Mr. Steed has also strived to make Ledford a better place academically and socially.

Mr. Steed has had the help of our assistant principal, Mr. Larry McAlpine. Among his many duties, Mr. McAlpine helps keep order around the school.

To handle the administrative paperwork, the school is fortunate to have Mrs. Mary Rickard as secretary. Mrs. Rickard handles such jobs as taking care of the money from each club and keeping up with the registers and receipts. To help with these and other jobs, Mrs. Rickard receives help from Mrs. Ruth Thomas, the assistant secretary.

This year the administration has strived to give every student at Ledford the best possible education.

A Short While Ago . . .

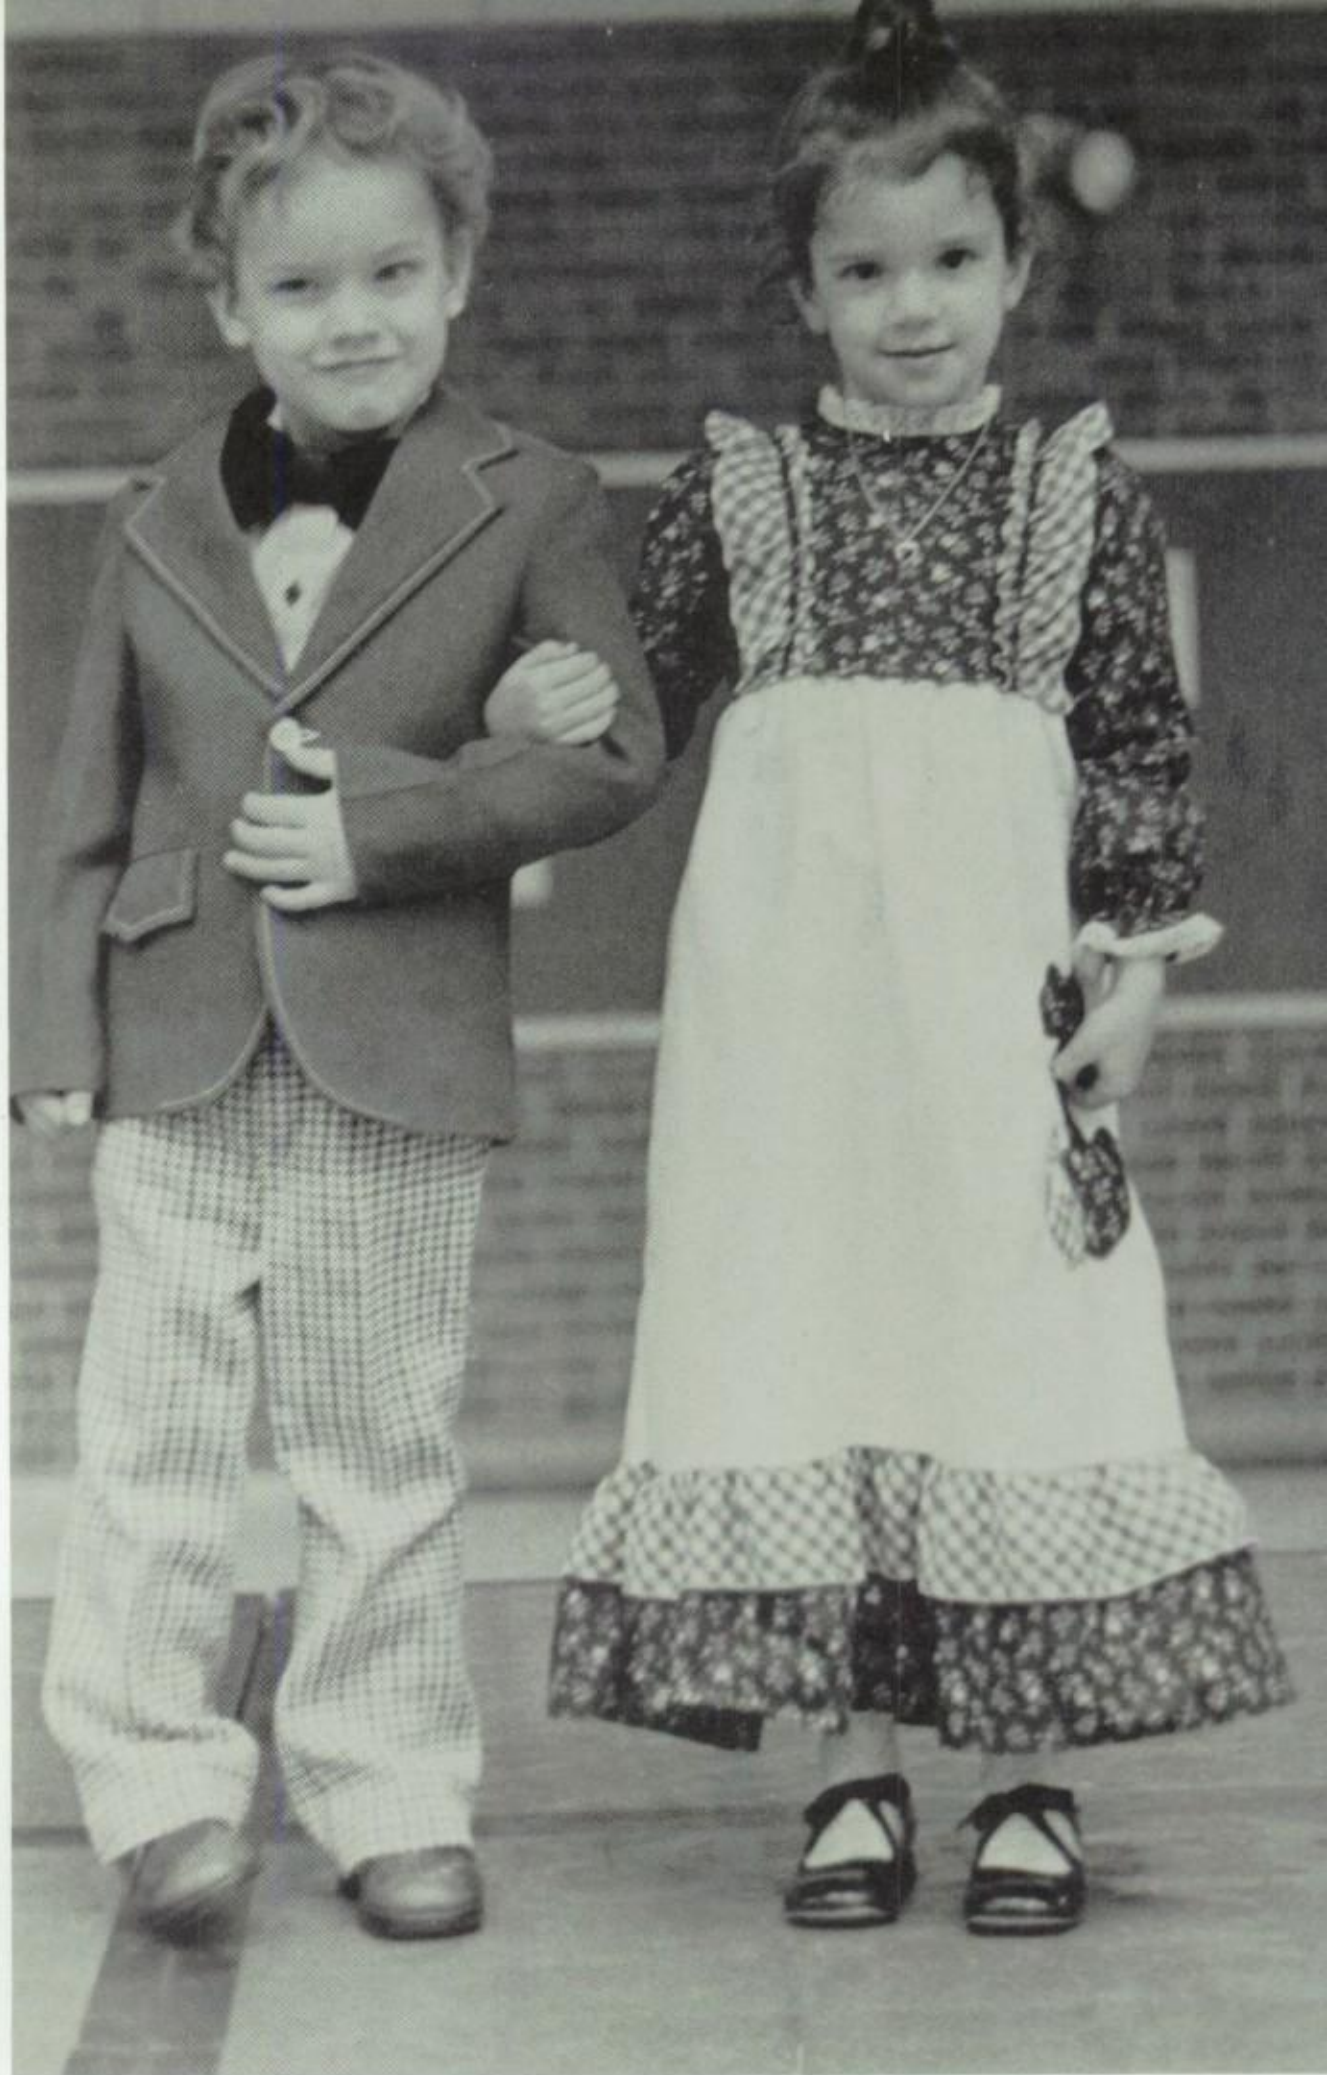

It seems like only a short while ago that I walked through the doors of Ledford Senior High School as a freshman. Little did I realize then that I was headed for a new experience, in both education and living. But all of that was three years ago, and now when asked what it's like to be a senior, I can only reply with many mixed thoughts, some good and bad.

There are no special stars that are placed upon your head or red carpets rolled out to greet you each morning, it's just the last year of high school and you want to make the most of it. Seniors really do not have any new privileges, they just quickly learn how to take advantage of the old ones. With less than a year left, you want to enjoy each moment of everyday with your friends.

Things are not always fun and games, sometimes you can become really depressed. You realize that with only a year left, you may never see some of your classmates again. Your memory begins to wander back to the first time you met and all the good times you had together. You wish that time would slow down and you could go back and relive the happy times. However, you cannot always live in the past, you must strive on for the future.

You will never forget Ledford or the many things that happened to you here. You will go on living and just be thankful that you could be a part of the history of Ledford Sr. High School

It Has Been Three Years . . .

It seems like only yesterday we were attending classes at Hasty and Wallburg. We, the junior class at Ledford Senior High, were the last class to be Hasty and Wallburg rivals. We have been together now almost three complete years and sometimes it is hard to realize that we were once rivals. It is sometimes even hard to remember who went to Hasty and who went to Wallburg. Before long we will be seperated again. One more year of this crazy life at Ledford and each will be going his own seperate way.

Juniors have been through many initiations, junior varsity practices, freshmen biology, even serving as waiters and waitresses at the Junior-Senior Prom. Now as upperclassmen, we too, can take fun in watching and remembering "what it was like."

Many new things opened up to us as juniors: college-bounders trying to get their acts together by taking required courses, participating in varsity sports, class rings finally coming back, and who could forget that silly Beta Club initiation the seniors put us through. One's class rank is obtained and PSAT scores are returned. Career day and career night arrives. Junior marshals are picked to lead the graduation ceremony. The Junior-Senior is always a "big secret" and kept "hush-hush," although after it has happened, you know it was worth the surprise.

All of this and much more makes up a junior's life at Ledford. It takes work to get here, but there is a lot of fun along the way. We have done whatever we could to be ready for next year's "senior life," and now that we are on the threshold of stepping into that life, we realize "it was worth it."

Sophomores of '78

The sophomore class of '78 consists of all types of people with their own idealistic appearances and personalities. Views of this class also vary as is expected but my personal opinion is that going from a freshman to a sophomore is a whole new ballgame. After being a freshman for a year with most attention directed toward you, being a sophomore can almost be described as a "let down."

The title of Sophomore means that you are a tenth grader, a little more mature and calmer in behavior but still mischievous in some ways.

Last year I thought that it would be so great to be a big sophomore instead of a punky freshman, but somehow I do not feel much different. I see most of the familiar faces that I left in June, and they all seem the same; that is, except for a few more pimples on a few faces and a few more pounds and inches on once small frames.

Last year I had big dreams of what I was going to do as a sophomore. I was going to save the world from a fate worse than death. These dreams no longer seem so important to me. Maybe I will make great accomplishments this year as a sophomore and make some of my dreams come true, and then again maybe I will not. I will just have to wait and see what life has in store for me this year.

It's A New Experience

For the freshmen, coming to Ledford Senior High School this year was a new experience. Because the school, the staff, and the upper classmen were unknown to us, we all had a challenge to meet. At first, walking into this big school felt funny. We did not know where anything was or which way to go. Also when the juniors and seniors started setting us up on lockers, we really felt dumb, especially if we had to sing something like "Old McDonald Had a Farm" or "Yankee Doodle." When we were set on the water fountains everybody laughed, so we just learned to laugh along with them.

Finding our way around was sort of difficult at first, but after a while it was easy to learn where everything was. The teachers were really different, too. But as long as we treated them with respect, they treated us with respect. This year was a great time to make many new friends even though the older ones did pick on us alot. They helped us to have faith, success, and pride in our school. By the end of the year, the freshmen were a real part of LHS.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's Varsity Football team's win-loss record was not "outstanding" compared to the preceeding seasons, as they started off slowly with a 1-5 record. They were a team with much depth in many positions, but they could not develop their depth until after the halfway mark of the season when they won four straight to even their record at 5-5.

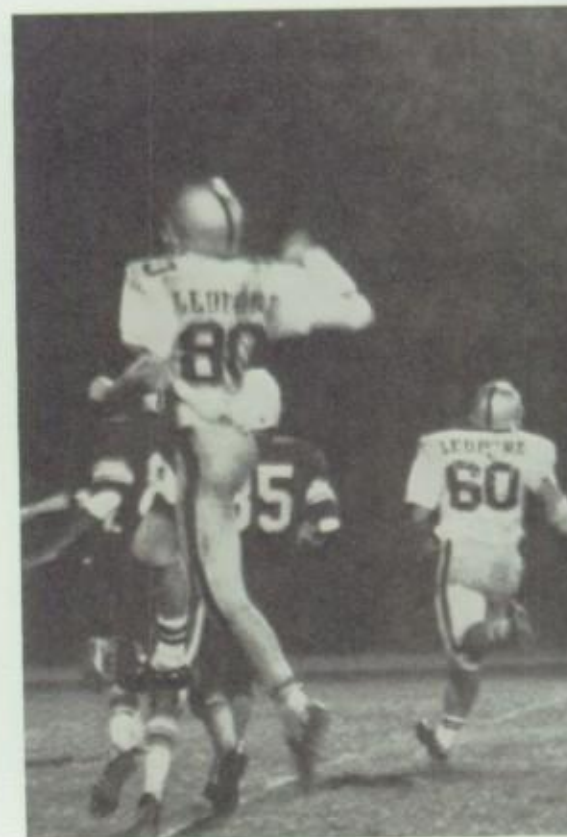

The Varsity team had two senior leaders in Robert Brown and Johnny Sellers, as Brown was voted Most Valuable Player and Sellers as Best Lineman. Kent Upton was voted Best Back as he gained over 1,000 yards in rushing, and David Warrell obtained the Most Improved award.

The J.V. Football team again had a very successful season with a 7-2 won-loss record. They had a very well balanced scoring attack with speed and agility dominating the team. Also, they had a strong defensive line with a quick secondary backing them up. This year's team was hungry for victory and, more times than not, they achieved their goal.

The Varsity Cheerleaders have the responsibility of keeping up school spirit. Participation in parades and serving food to athletes at break are but a few of the services our cheerleaders provide throughout the year. They also prepare the athletic banquets and conduct pep rallies.

Last spring, they competed with other schools from North and South Carolina at Carowinds. In the fall, the cheerleaders held a cheerleader clinic, co-sponsored by the Wake Forest University cheerleaders, as both a learning and a fund raising project.

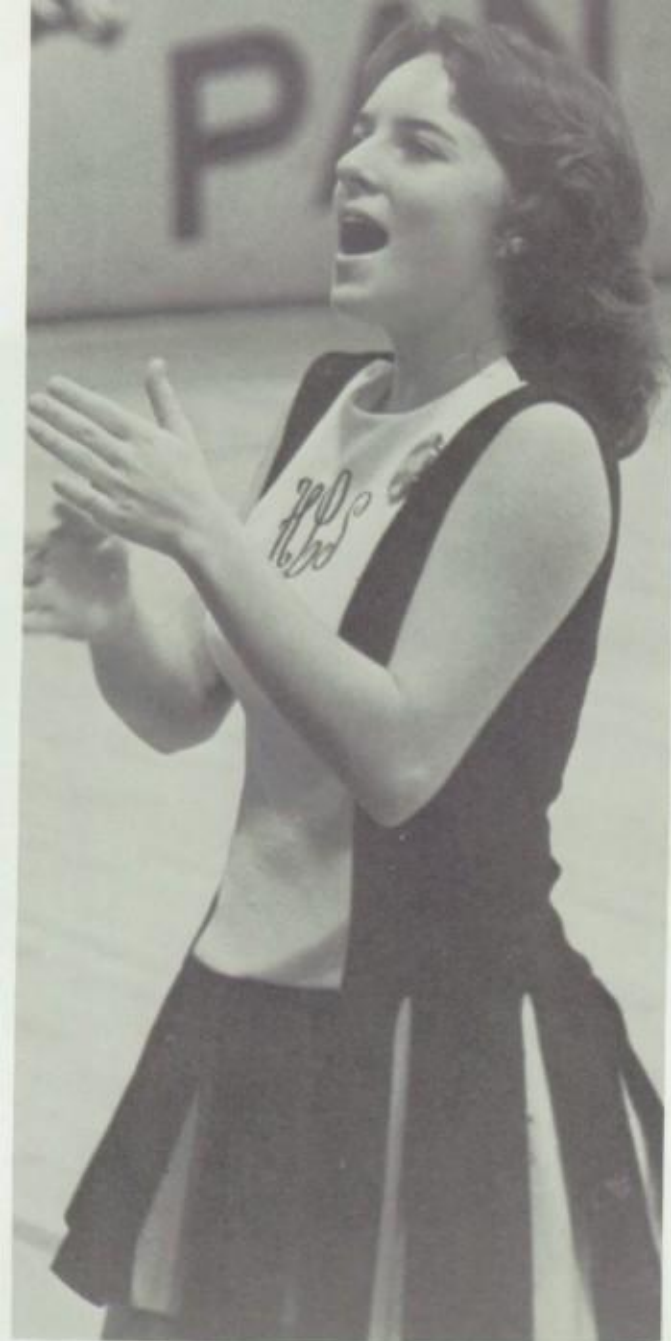

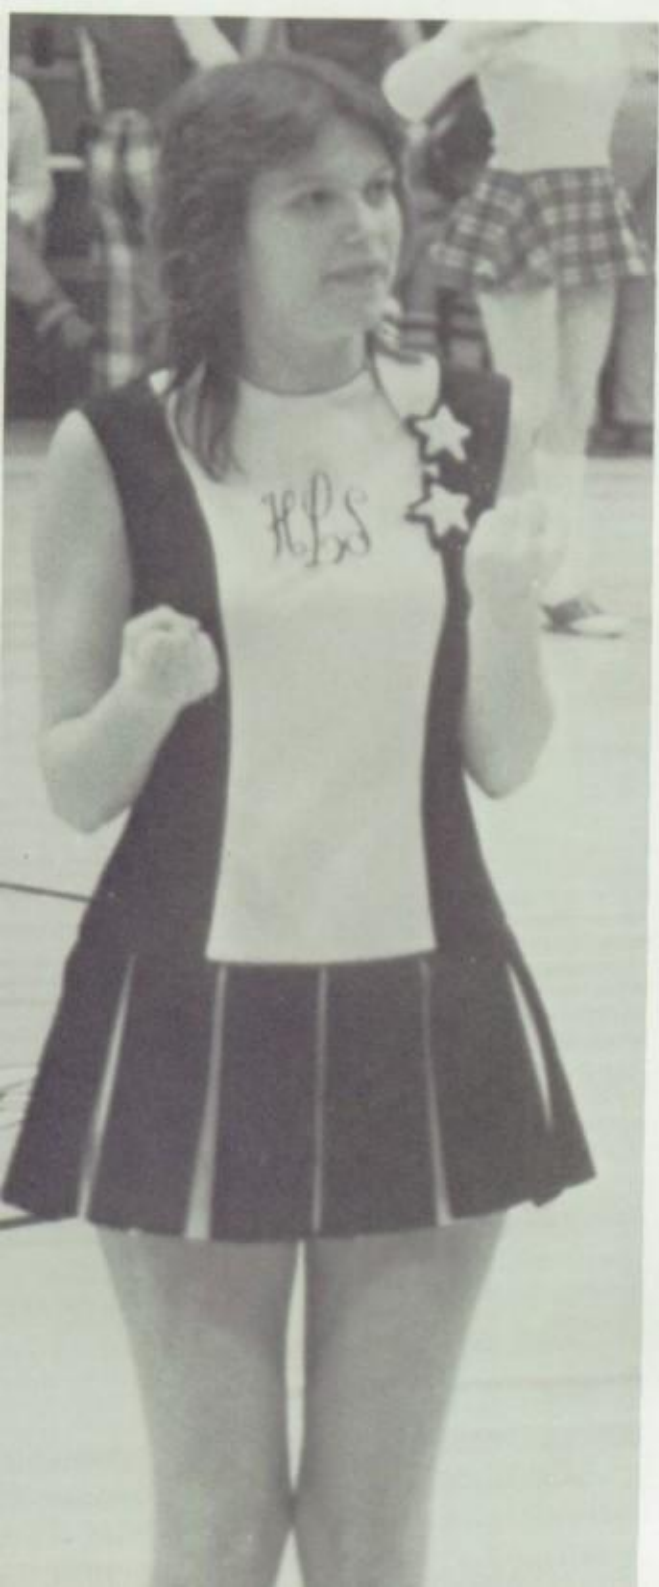

There are eight varsity cheerleaders. This group of girls carries on its activities under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Frazier.

The J.V. Cheerleaders are a dependable, enthusiastic, and hard-working group of girls. The squad cheers at J.V. football games, volleyball games, and Freshman and J.V. basketball games. Among the activities of the J.V. Cheerleaders is co-hosting Ledford's first cheerleader clinic with Wake Forest and selling programs at all Varsity home games.

During the All-State Cheerleader Camp at High Point College, they placed first in the J.V. division.

Ledford's Cross-Country team had a magnificent year. They placed 1st in the conference and 5th in the sectionals. The team had to compete against 3A and 4A schools which were much larger than Ledford, but the team beat them with ease. The team was hampered by the cold, wet fall, but they did not let the weather stop them from winning. A school record was set by Mark DeBusk at 14:46. Mark was also voted Most Valuable Player. Russell Hall won the award for Most Improved Player.

1977 GOLF

The '77 Golf team finished in 1st place in conference play with a 14-1 record. Only a one stroke loss at Allen Jay kept them from an undefeated season. The team was led by Mark Berrier, John McKinnon, Tony Moore, Paul Wood, Dino Wood, and Russell Hall. High points in the season were victories at home against Allen Jay and Central Davidson when the team total was under par. The majority of our players returned and we should have a fine team this year.

HCC Does Macrame

The Health Careers Club had an active year. The year started out with a walk-a-thon in October. The money raised was given to the Salvation Army. For a continuing money-raising project, the club decided to make macrame hanging baskets and belts. The members took orders and sold these items throughout the year. At Christmas the club prepared three food baskets to take to three needy families in the community. In the February meeting Mr. Everhart, the guidance counselor, led an informal discussion on health related careers. In May, the club attended the Health Careers Fair in Chapel Hill.

Future Homemakers of America

FHA has a large membership consisting of those students who have taken Home Economics.

FHA activities started out slowly this year since the advisor, Mrs. Carolyn Auman, was on maternity leave for two months, but once she returned activities began to accelerate.

During American Education Week, FHA donated a coffee pot and mugs to the Women Teachers' Lounge.

On January 10 initiation was held and on the 2nd of February a grandmother-granddaughter banquet was held. This banquet recognized the grandmothers by having entertainment and various refreshments.

In the spring the annual FHA Mother-Daughter banquet was held. The banquet is the biggest event of the year and is "the pride" of the club. The banquet features a fashion show and a planned meal in honor of the mothers.

Future Secretaries of America

The Ledford Future Secretaries of America, sponsored by Mrs. Phyllis Morgan, opened it's year with an installation service held in September. The candy sale in November was a big success, with the FSA selling over $1000. The FSA members have monthly meetings and do service projects throughout the year. During National Education Week, a vase of carnations were presented to Mrs. Mary Rickard, the school's secretary, by the FSA.

The highlight of the year was the FSA Convention. This year it was held at the Hilton Inn in Raleigh in March.

Future Farmers of America

The FFA at Ledford is very active in many things. They participate in Livestock and Dairy Judging and also attend state and national conventions held in Raleigh and Kansas City. Some members attend FFA Camp and workshops. Every year the club members choose an FFA Sweetheart. This year's winner is Karen Portaro, a member of the Senior class. FFA conducts a yearly fruit sale to finance their numerous activities. Local president, Joe Gordon, attended the National convention and is District Five vice-president.

French Club

The French Club is composed of students who have had at least one year of French. It's main purpose is to promote French language and culture, but it participates in many other activities. For instance, the French Club has purchased books for the French classes, taken canned goods to the needy, and also purchased things for the teachers' lounge. The French Club also gives two fifty dollar scholarships to the graduating seniors.

Youth for Christ

YFC Goes Caroling

Youth for Christ consists of about fifty people. The club works on projects in the winter and spring. This year they went Christmas caroling to Liberty Nursing Home and to Mills Home. They had a turnout of eight people, but it sounded good and everyone thoroughly enjoyed it. They sent money to Mills Home for sponsorship for birthday and Christmas gifts. They also sent money to the Special Accounts for Children. This agency helps foster children in Guilford County.

The club also invites special speakers to lead discussions at some of their meetings.

Beta Club Sells Jackets

After several false starts and delays the Ledford Beta Club began another active year with the formal induction of new members before the student body. The initiation which followed two weeks later featured such "stars" as the Muppets, and Dolly Parton.

Several community service projects were undertaken by the Beta Club this year. The club distributed food baskets at Thanksgiving to needy families, collected money for the Christmas Cheer Fund, and sponsored a sale of school jackets.

Members of the club also traveled to Raleigh this spring to attend the State Beta Club Convention. Throughout the year the Beta Club, under the guidance of Mr. Michael and Mr. McAlpine, continues to uphold high standards.

OFFICERS: Kneeling — Robin Snyder, Recording Secretary; Karen Sloan, Vice-President. Standing — Mary Ann Thomas, Corresponding Secretary; Debbie Bouldin, Treasurer; June Beeson, President.

Student Government

The Student Government is made up of one representative and an alternate from each homeroom. The officers are elected by the student body in late Spring. After the elections everyone is ready to get to work planning such things as the Homecoming and Christmas dances. Another project undertaken during Christmas was a Christmas Outreach Program in which old toys were collected. One of the setbacks of our new school was a lack of seating facilities in the halls. Student government solved this problem by buying materials and constructing benches. The Student Government takes ideas from the student body, mixes it with needs, and comes up with a worthwhile system.

Stand 'N' Gavel

The Stand 'N' Gavel Club had an active and rewarding year. Under the outstanding leadership of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Hudson, various members of the club travelled to many tournaments. The competition was tough, but Ledford made several advancements and wins in Varsity Debate, Standard Debate, Extemporaneous Speaking, Original Oratory, and Dramatic Interpretation. To sponsor our program, a fruitcake sale was held in the fall. An initiation of the new members was held in the middle of January; yet, the activities of the club began in early October. The Second Annual Carlyle L. Cox Invitational Tournament was held on October 28, and 29, 1977. Throughout the year, the events of the Stand 'N' Gavel Club provided interest, excitement, and honor for its members and for Ledford Senior High School.

only 2 people have obtained the honor of Double Distinction: Cathy Midkiff and Karen Sloan. For Double Distinction one must participate in both divisions and earn at least 250 points in each. There are 27 members in the Ledford Chapter of the NFL.

FTA

FTA Attends Convention

The Future Teachers of America is one of the active clubs at Ledford Senior High School. It started off the year in September when the president, treasurer, and advisor attended the advisory meeting to plan the activities for the State FTA and District FTA meeting. In October the senior members attended the District Convention at Wingate Junior College. During the annual FTA fruitcake sale, the members sold almost three thousand dollars worth of fruitcakes. During National Education Week, the FTA gave the teachers turkey apples and bookmarkers. The FTA also sponsors a tutoring program for fellow students and Junior High students. This year the FTA attended their State Convention at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

DECA

Our chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America is a very out-going group, both inside and outside school. Mr. Brown, the sponsor, helps to provide an insight into the business world to each of the club's 46 members.

The activity of this club is evident throughout the year. In the fall, they had initiations for new members, installation of officers, and a reception for the parents of the members. Later, in November, many of the club members attended the District Leadership Conference, at Reidsville Senior High School, where district officers were elected. In March, they attended the State Conference in Raleigh. Finally, in May, they held their National Career Development Conference in Washington, D.C.

The club is also involved in depth at Ledford. They have many events, such as the Young Man and Young Woman of the year awards, the DECA Awards Banquet, and selecting Miss DECA. The Club began this year sponsoring a school store for students. The final culmination of the year is in April, with the Employer-Employee Banquet.

Carlyle L. Cox Literary Society

The first year's accomplishments of the Carlyle L. Cox Literary Society were very important to the present and future students at Ledford. In October, a constitution was adopted and officers were elected. Through student donations, the Literary Society was able to publish its first literary magazine, called TALIONUS, in December. All works within the magazine were original compositions from Ledford's students and faculty. In the spring, the Society had as one of its distinguished guests, Mr. C.L. Cox, for whom the Society was named. The objective of the Society is the self-improvement of the members and school in all areas of creative thinking, criticism, and writing.

Choir

Choir Performs at Jr. High

The choir consists of 25 students interested in music. During Christmas season they performed at Wallburg and Hasty Elementary Schools and at Ledford Junior High. In these performances several choir members participated in individual skits. A few members imitated several personalities ranging from Shirley Temple to Dolly Parton. The choir also performed for the Senior High at Christmas.

Throughout the year, the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Morgan, performs at school and community events.

Bus Drivers

The Bus Drivers are a small group of young people, who through their skill and dedication, try to cope with the difficult job of providing transportation to and from school for each and every student.

Often we fail to realize how hard it is to drive a school bus. The drivers must be up at 5:30 — 6:00 A.M., and they arrive home later than any of their passengers. Finally, while they try to coax along their not so cooperative buses, they are beseiged by the constant sounds of "Bus Driver, go faster," "Bus Driver, you're late" or "Bus Driver, you left my brother."

Many thanks to this hard working group.

Band

Practice began early this year for the members of the band. For the first time the band began work on their half-time show over the summer, and as a result, the Marching Panthers turned out some of the best shows ever. The band performed these at football games. After football season, the Marching Band gave an excellent performance at the Thomasville and Albemarle Christmas Parades. When basketball season rolled around, the Pep Band provided spirit and entertainment for the home fans. In March the band participated in the NC State Band Festival in Salisbury.

The Band receives able support from the Band Boosters Club. The Boosters help raise money for uniforms and instruments and help provide transportation to and from games. The collage page of this section is compliments of the Band Boosters Club.

Drum Major, Flag Carriers, Majorettes

The Ledford Majorettes consist of seven hard working girls. These girls practice every day with the band during second period. They work hard on routines which they perform at football games and pep rallies.

The Ledford Flag Carriers spend many hours working with the band and majorettes to rehearse and prepare their routines. Their performances add much color to the halftime program of Ledford football games.

Drum Major, Mike Euliss, always displays a great deal of enthusiasm as he leads the band.

MAJORETTES — Libby Brown, Tricia Coe, Beth Goodman, Kathy Douglas, Debbie Bean, Jan McCune, Jessie Sexton.

Boosters Club

One of the most active clubs at Ledford is not made up of students, but of members of the community. The main purpose for this club is to raise money to better the athletic department. The money is raised through a variety of projects. The Boosters Club sponsors such things as dances, the Little Miss Ledford pageant, and the concession stands at the football games and basketball games.

"Janet bids farewell to Santa."

SANTA RETIRES!

After 34 years of faithful service, a dear, jolly, little man is retiring. There will be no more foam-rubber tummies, "Ho, Ho, Ho's" or tangled beards for Mr. Jack Grayson. During a recent interview we shared with us some of his past experiences.

People have also called him up on Christmas and asked to speak to Santa as a treat for their children. Mr. Grayson said that the small children who really believe in Santa Claus always enjoyed him the most.

Although his employer claimed him to be an extremely good Santa Claus, Mr. Grayson said that it became monotonous before the season was out. Over the years he has played Santa for his three sons, a nursery school, several friends' homes, and Belk's Department store in Thomasville.

Although we say good-bye to Santa Claus as Mr. Grayson and although there will be many more Santas to try to take his place, Mr. Grayson will remain as one of the best and most loved Santas Ledford has ever had.

Barbara Tysinger and Donna Parnell

Some of the stranger things children have asked Santa for include: baby sisters, calmer moms, and to be allowed to spend the night with him. Once a boy brought him the page numbers and pictures from a catalog of everything he wanted for Christmas. At one nursery school one kid asked him if he slept with the teacher. (The boy's father had told him that Santa Claus slept with Mommy!)

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

Surprise! Our choice for Personality of the Month is Robert Brown. Robert is involved in sports as well as the other activities here at school. He is a member of the Monogram, Pep, Literary, F. T. A.,

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

Each year the teachers here at Ledford choose ten seniors whom they feel have been outstanding during their four years at Ledford. Although there is no set, formal criteria, some factors considered are grades, school spirit, and extra curricular involvement.

This year those seniors honored as OUTSTANDING SENIORS are June Beeson, Debbie Bouldin, Robert Brown, David Cantrell, Renee Gobel, Joe Gordon, Jerry Hooker, Dana Sheffield, Karen Sloan, and Jeff Welch. Congratulations to these well deserving seniors. You've done a great job!

and French clubs. Robert has been a member of the Varsity Football and baseball teams for the past two years. This year he was presented the Most Valuable Player award in football. He also has recently been chosen as most school spirited and an Outstanding Senior.

In his spare time Robert dates a freshman at UNCG, and he has a lot of spare time. He does work occasionally (part-time) at Belk's in Hanes Mall selling children's and ladies' shoes. He is especially good at selling children's shoes. It was said that he once tickled a child's foot for five minutes before he could get the child's foot measured properly.

Many of us around school recognize Robert by his outgoing, cheerful, and sunny disposition. It is unfair to say that he is running for the "Oscar, the Grouch" award (as some have said). He is merely that way in the mornings. Congratulations! Robert. We're proud of you.

Kaleidoscope

The KALEIDOSCOPE Staff spends many hours working on the yearbook. Work begins during summer vacation selling ads and attending seminars for ideas. The various departments of photography, business, layout, copy, and also our advisor continue their work throughout the first part of the school year until the February 4 deadline. Much time is spent before school, during the day, in yearbook class, and afterschool to present the best possible yearbook to the school. The 1977-78 KALEIDOSCOPE Staff hope that you will find our efforts rewarding.

American Education Week

American Education Week, November 13-19, seeks to encourage local citizen support in the improvement of education. This year Ledford Senior High School, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Josie Laumann, stressed these goals through week long activities.

On Monday, the cafeteria and custodial staffs were honored with cookies by the cheerleaders. Mrs. Rickard was presented with a floral arrangement by the FSA.

Tuesday was visitation for parents and grandparents. Invitations had been made earlier in English classes.

On Wednesday, several clubs and parents honored teachers. FTA gave each teacher an apple and a bookmark; French Club placed gifts in both faculty lounges; and the Trade and Industries classes gave faculty members pencil holders they had made in class. A parent placed cakes in the lounges and PTA donated a couch.

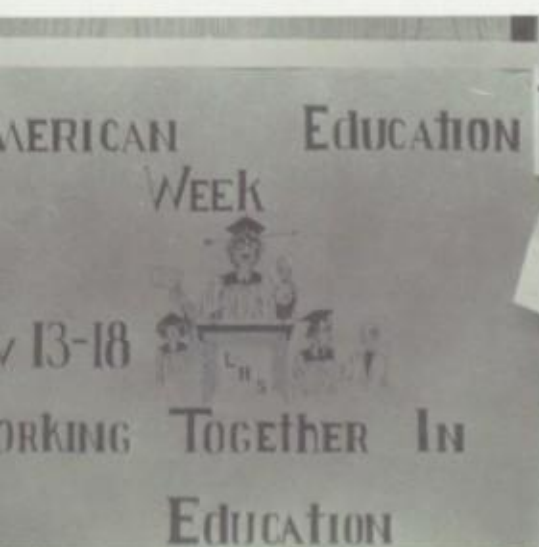

Administrators were honored on Thursday. Health Careers sent a cake to the County Office and gave flowers to Mr. Steed and Mr. McAlpine. The French Club sent Flowers to the County Office.

PTA was held Thursday night. The Student Government members served as guides while FHA members served refreshments to those attending.

Other organizations are as follows: Fact Sheet prepared by the Library Club; Bricklaying class and FFA planted a tree; Art class made posters; Annual staff took pictures for an AEW scrapbook.

Several students entered a county essay contest. Mike Fulp, a sophomore at Ledford, placed first.

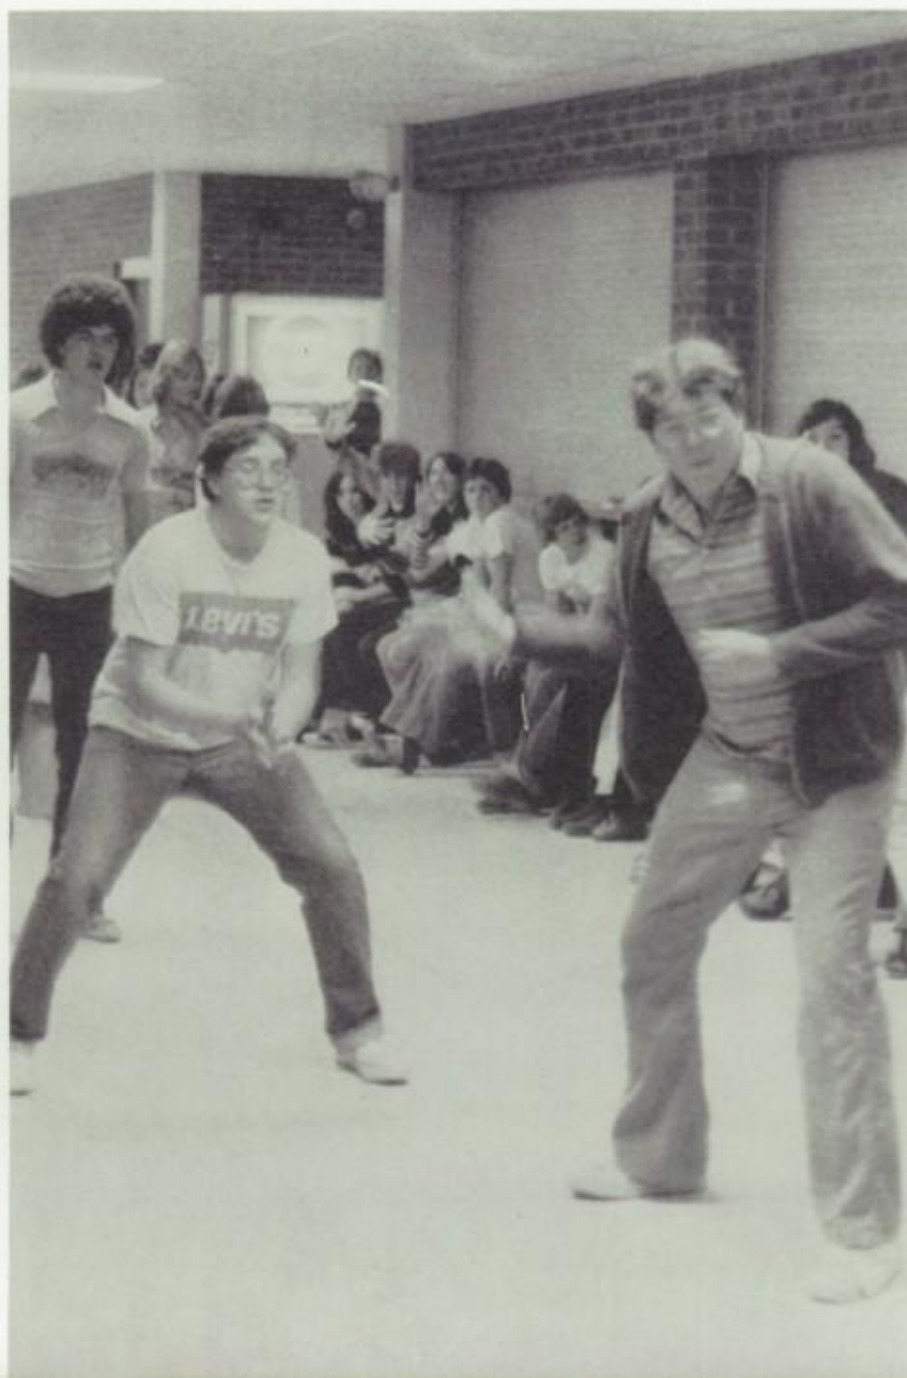

Ledford Senior High received a First Place Plaque from the Davidson County NCAE for their excellent participation in American Education Week.
